Last week fruit shippers in the Niagara Peninsula were notified by S. O. Martin, General Superintendent, Central District, Canadian National Express Co., that a certain schedule regarding the shipping of leno-covered fruit baskets, this season must be strictly adhered to. The instructions as issued by the Express Co. are as follows:

To facilitate the fruit handling, speed up fruit train operations and avoid difficulties and delays experienced in the past, the following regulations and instructions must be adhered to:

1.—Shippers must state at the beginning of the season what station they wish to forward from, and their traffic will not be accepted at other stations.

2.—Fruit shed space will be marked out for the larger destinations and shippers will place their shipments in such allotted spaces according to destinations, after name are properly addressed for forwarding.

3.—Shipments will be accepted up to thirty minutes before scheduled departure time of train, as shown on notice displayed on fruit platforms.

4.—Leno covered packs will only be accepted for L.C.L. movement to the following points:

Would Build Weirs

A resolution was passed by the Saltfleet township council recommending to the Federal Government that it undertake the construction of proper weirs and breakwaters along the shores of Lake Ontario bordering on the township of Saltfleet. A large acreage has been washed away during the last few years and they feel that it is a federal responsibility which that Government should assume to protect citizens and ratepayers.

North Grimsby Assessment $1,638,966 — Exempted Lands And Buildings $129,823 — Grimsby Beach Assessed For $98,000 — Population 2,058.

At June session of North Grimsby council on Saturday afternoon, Assessor Gordon Metcalfe returned his Roll for 1944. Total assessment of the township is $1,638,966, which is $3,129 of a decrease over 1943, due to the Deer Park Club house being turned over for hospital purposes. Lands and buildings in the township with an assessed value of $129,823 are exempt from taxation, they being schools, cemetery, hospital, churches, hydro lines and highways.

Grimsby Beach property has an assessed value of $98,000, being made up of buildings $65,950; land $32,050. Population of the township is placed at 2,058. At the Court of Revision held previous to the council meeting there were no appeals against the assessment which bespeaks for the good work of Assessor Metcalfe.

Council will pay the expenses of the Assessor to attend the Ontario Assessor's convention in Toronto on June 21st, 22nd and 23rd.

West End waterworks in May consumed 185,000 gallons while the East End used up 552,000 gallons.

During 1943 North Grimsby pupils attended Grimsby High school for a total of 11,185.6 pupil days.

Feeds Birds On Sugar And Water

A. C. Price Has Family of Eight Robins And Seven Humming Birds — Missed One-Legged — All.

Last week we told you about the one-legged robin that spends his summer vacations with the Edw. Head family at the lake. And now last year he only appeared once or twice during the summer. The reason for his short stays last year was because he was vacationing most of the time at the home of A. C. and Mrs. Price, Robison street south.

When "AC" read to The Independent about this robin, he called to tell us that he had missed him this year and had wondered what had become of him, as he was a great pet around the Price home last year.

At the present time our genial telephone manager has a family of eight robins and seven humming birds partaking of his food daily. He feeds the humming birds sugar and water and is thinking of applying to Mayor Johnson for an extra sugar ration.

Business Is Slow; Council Speedy

Newspaper Boys Have a Tough Time keeping Up To Mayor Johnson And Council And At Same Time Be Able To Get Enough Copy To Make a Story — Will Ask Corp. Woods Of Provincial Police To Again Interview Canada Coach Lines Officials Re Main Street Congestion — Chief Turner Will Get a New Rain Coat.

Town council was not productive of very much real news last night, but the newspaper boys had to be on their toes to get what there was, for Mayor Johnson and council were doing business in real invasion style. In 52 minutes after the finish of the reading of the minutes, council put through a tremendous lot of general and routine business as well as producing a little copy for the news hounds.

Mayor Johnson brought up the matter of the congestion created on Main street by the Canada Coach Lines buses and council as a whole concurred with him. At the July 15th, 1943 session of council, Corp. Charlie Woods of the Provincial Police submitted a report, whereby he had interviewed Canada Coach Lines officials and they had agreed to make a readjustment of the arrival and departure of east and west bound buses in Grimsby, so as to allow at least five minutes difference in the schedule between east and west bound vehicles, but as soon as a change in time was made.

His W. C. W. expressed the opinion that the time-table had been changed but the variance in time between the arrival and departure of east and west bound buses had not been changed. On the suggestion of Mayor Johnson, council will ask Corp. Woods to again interview the Canada Coach Lines officials regarding this matter.

Reeve Lothian was late in reporting for duty and Councillor Phelps was absent, out of town on business.

A letter of thanks was received from N. J. M. Lockhart, M.P. in answer to a letter forwarded to him at the time of the death of his daughter, by Clerk G. G. Bourne.

H.M.C.S. HURON SINKS HUN CRUISERS

Under Command Of Lieut.-Cdr. H. S. Rayner, D.S.C., Tribal Class Destroyer Makes Things Hot For What Is Left Of Hitler's Navy — Was Youngest Captain At 30 — Been In Service 13 Years.

Lt.-Cdr. H. S. Rayner, D.S.C., of Grimsby, commander of the Tribal class destroyer, Huron, which shared in the destruction of two German destroyers and damaged two others off the coast of France last Friday, was Canada's youngest captain at 30 — been in service 13 years.

That was in July, 1940, when he took command of H.M.C.S. St. Laurent, after 13 years' service in the navy. He left Ridley College at 17 and went to England to begin his naval studies at Davenport aboard H.M.S. Erebus. Upon graduation he was assigned to H.M.S. Revenge of the Mediterranean Fleet, one of six midshipmen chosen from his class.

He took another course at the Royal Naval College, Greenwich, and then joined his first Canadian ship, H.M.C.S. Champlain. Later he joined H.M.C.S. Skeena and was promoted to staff headquarters after two-and-a-half years' service.

In March, 1941, he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross "for courage and enterprise in action against enemy submarines." H.M.C.S. St. Laurent, under his command, was under fire at St. Valery during the evacuation of the British Expeditionary Force and also aided in the rescue of 850 survivors of the torpedoed Andora Star.

Born at Clinton, Ont., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Rayner, he attended Grimsby public school. He was married in 1936 to an English girl and they now have two sons. Mrs. Rayner resides in Halifax.

H.M.C.S. Huron is the third of her line in the Royal Canadian Navy, following Iroquois and Athabaskan. She is regarded as one of Canada's best equipped warships.

SIMPLIFIED SOCIALISM

The party line of the C.C.F. is indicated by the following advertisement recently published under their sponsorship:

Question: What is Socialism?

Answer: Our provincial highways and county roads are examples of Socialism that are already here.

Question: What is free enterprise or individual initiative?

Answer: Free enterprise or individual initiative as opposed to our public highways would be private roads with toll gates every few miles.

Two parallel questions and answers may be suggested for the next advertisement of the series. These are:

Question: What is Socialism?

Answer: Our penitentiaries and county jails are examples of Socialism that are already here.

Question: What is free enterprise or individual initiative?

Answer: Free enterprise or individual initiative as opposed to our penitentiaries and jails would be free citizens living in homes of their own choice.

HOW MONEY VALUES CAN VANISH

A New York court has been getting instructive evidence on inflation as it flamed up in Europe after the last war. Zolotnitsky, a jeweler in Kiev, Russia borrowed 50,000 rubles from Jemtchoujnikov in November, 1918, when a ruble was worth 50 cents in American money. Later the jeweler moved to Paris, and in 1940 fled to the United States, where he opened a store in New York.

Meanwhile Jemtchoujnikov died, and his widow crossed the ocean to live in New York. Recently she took court action against the jeweler for $25,000, less $400 which he had previously paid on the loan. Zolotnitsky claims that if he owes anything it is one-millionth of a ruble, inasmuch as one 1944 ruble is equal to 50 billions of the 1918 ruble. Such was the effect on Russian currency during the inflationary period following the revolution.

This condition prevailed in both Russia and Germany to an extent that destroyed all values. It may exist after this war in countries which have neglected to protect their currencies. Judging from some arguments heard by the Banking Committee of Canada's House of Commons, there are men in public life in this country who fear that currency values can be undermined. The case in New York may help to recall facts.

ROCKERS FOR STATESMEN

It is good to read that rocking chairs are again the vogue. For there are those who make a fine art of porch sitting. With reason, too. Even in wartime, after a man has put in a hard day's work in factory or office, plus a couple of hours hoeing and weeding, he is entitled to practice the art. There are a few main points which deserve attention.

First, a rocking chair or at least a glider, Grandmother always claimed that she could knit and talk better and faster if she were swaying rhythmically.

Second, porch sitting at its best precludes any other possibly distracting physical activity. One thing at a time done well applies in this matter.

Third, porch sitting stimulates the gen-

'WAY BACK WHEN

Frank Fairborn, Jr.

Remember the old Duvall sawmill at the foot of the Clark street hill? There wasn't even the vestige of a house or a shanty in the Hollow in those days. Just the mill.

Remember the Hewitt Flax Mill fire? Who can tell how long ago that was. This mill and lumber yard was on Depot street behind the big double house opposite to the now Carnegie Library. The mill was never rebuilt as the citizens voted down a Bonus Bill to James Hewitt and he moved to Beamserville and started a mill and lumber yard.

Remember the old Cold Storage building on the east side of Ontario street south of the G. T. R. tracks? That is where Linus Woolverton and other growers used to store apples for shipment to England.

Remember the big celebration on Main street in 1900 on the eve of the departure for the South African war of William Adolphus "Buck" Wentworth? "Buck" was presented with a sum of money and a sack of chewing tobacco by the loyal citizens and made a speech that was a masterpiece of oratory. Particularly when he said "Mr. Livison and Mr. Mitchell, I'm proud of you."

Next to Ancaster and Barton, Saltfleet was the earliest settled township in Wentworth county. Who the first settler was is not definitely decided, but the year was 1786. Between that year and 1790 Levi Lewis, John Pettit, Gresham Carpenter, Augustus Jones, John Biggar, John Wilson, Samuel Lear and a few others settled in a locality west of Fifty Mile Creek—now known as Fifty—between the mountain and the lake. The early history of this township is but a repetition of that of others of the county, in which the tales of the difficulties of finding a shelter for the travel-worn pioneer head—of the troubles of erecting the first log hut—of the struggles for existence till the "cleared patch" was made and the first grain raised—of the slow approaches from hardship to comfort and the gradual development into neighborhoods form the principle subjects of record. Some natural features here tend to alleviate the severities of the first settlement.

The soil under the mountain was rich and productive and yielded immensely with little labor. Those who made their homes near the lake, fishing easily supplied an article of food.

At the breaking out of the war of 1812 and while there were few settlers in the vicinity, the manufacture of salt commenced, and at one time appeared to be in a fair way of assuming considerable proportions. In the bed of the Big Creek—Red Creek—near the intersection of the present 2nd concession were two or three excellent salt springs. A settler named Allan McDougall erected, in the early part of 1812, saltworks here which did such a flourishing business that another was put up in the same year by William Ken. No salt was imported in those times, and the works supplied the whole region for 3 or 4 years. The manufacturers enjoyed a complete monopoly of the local trade, and sold all the salt their works could produce at such exorbitant rates as $10 a bushel and $50 a barrel.

It was while these works flourished that the township took its name.

The facilities of this section of the country for speedy growth of population were seen even in those early years as the only two avenues of this part of the peninsula with the United States ran through Saltfleet, and with the tide of U.E. Loyalist and European immigrants pouring in since 1790 the settlement of this township advanced rapidly. At this time there were two roads, scarcely more than foot-paths, and fenced in by forest trees—one running in a zigzag course near the foot of the mountain and the other cut along the lake following the curves of the shore, both terminating at Burlington Heights. In the early days, the Lake Road, as it was called, was the principal thoroughfare, and continued to be so for many years. But little by little, the waves of Ontario washed away the lake bank from the Beach to the east of the "Thirty" until they encroached in places upon the highway. The road fences were removed several times at various points along the coast, but the waters steadily ate their way upon it until the whole highway was washed away and the line of the old lake road is now in the most cases, far out in the water. In 1820, a house built on the upper road, at the Fifty Mile Creek, a stream scoured by the earlier settlers who gave each of the creeks along this road the names of 2-mile creek, 5-mile creek, 20-mile creek, etc., according to their supposed distance from Niagara. This house became a stopping place and in later years almost a village and at Stoney Creek two or three log houses, a log tavern, a saw mill, and a church sprang up, and in a few years became a village. Occasional settlers came into the township till the year 1813, when this little Village of Stoney Creek was fated to be the scene of the most important battles of 1812 and to become an immortal name in the history of the country.

People are hardly in a position to complain of defects in their home towns, if they have not kept their own home places in good order.

HYDRO Lightens The Way!

Electricity is essential! to commerce!

Imagine, if you can, a towering skyscraper deprived completely of electricity. It would be nothing but a black, dark block of stone, steel and concrete... useless, unuseable.

It is Hydro that puts life into skyscrapers, warehouses and factories, or any other building. For electricity transforms darkness into light... moves elevators rapidly and silently... performs the hundred tasks that cannot open or building the functioning pulse of life.

Hidden in the walls of tall buildings are hundreds of miles of wiring... a intricate network, radiating from a master switchboard to whatever light and power are needed. Busy telephones... chattering teletype equipment... business machines, and other mechanical, time-saving devices that serve the many needs of commerce... are powered by electricity.

In Ontario... in business and homes... in industry and on the farm... Hydro lightens the way. It powers the machines that produce the goods we need... it brings us entertainment... it makes our work-day easier, our life more comfortable.

Plan for better living and more leisure after Victory, by taking full advantage of the benefits that can be yours through the use of electricity.

Girls At Liberty To Pinch

British regulation of prices do not permit U.S. soldiers in England to get stung but the authorities could not keep them from being pinched for not wearing oak leaves on the last day in May. It seems that the girls are at liberty to pinch all males who do not wear oak leaves on that day. These commemorate the escape of Charles I from Cromwell's soldiers in 1651, by hiding in an oak tree. As few U.S. soldiers knew of this custom, most of them were liable to the pains and penalties attached to its non-observance. Combined with Leap Year privileges, it gave girls an excuse for striking up an acquaintance with the visitors whose marriage record in England, though not as high as that of the Canadians, is still considerable.

Fingers Don't Lie

There's a theory that fingers don't lie and there's a book that says that fingers don't lie either. The author, Joseph Ranaid, declares that his digital method is a better guide to character than palmistry or graphology. Long fingers, he says, denote patience, system, order, ambition, neatness. Short fingers indicate haste, lack of caution and emotionalism. Butter fingers are, of course, a sure proof of a tendency to drop things. Thick fingers publish the fact that their owner is a materialist and thin-fingered people are, on the Ranaid theory, dreamy and idealistic. Finger-tips are as much a give away as knuckles. Oval tips go with sentimentalism and square tips match pragmatism, chin and other signs of aggressiveness. People who do not wish to betray their inmost secrets through their finger tips should wear gloves in public and keep away from manicure girls.

Waging War On Inflation

Never in the history of Canada have women been called upon to do more—and never in the history of our nation have women been able to do so much.

In the fall of 1941 when prices were rising . . . nothing to really scarce you—but every time you came from town and went over your bill you noticed a cent here, two cents there, maybe five some place else, and all on common items such as sugar, rice, bacon, flour . . . yard goods, oilcloth.

It didn't really add up to so much, you told yourself . . . war always made prices go up. But after putting your groceries away, you didn't feel quite so good about it. What if it kept up; where would it stop?

Other people were watching those prices too, and they could see what was happening. INFLATION was acting in—deadly, as smallpox, bitter as charity bread, as hard to whip on the home front as armoured tanks and fighter squadrons on the battlefield.

It was then—in the fall of 1941, that action was taken to stem the tide. And now the women of Canada can look back, after more than two years of reasonably happy going, for it took every mother's daughter, fighting tooth and nail, to keep that ceiling on, to keep prices level. And may it be said, to their eternal credit, that in the fifth year of war, the cost of living index has risen only a little over three per cent since the price ceiling was clamped on.

But when our soldiers take a hill they have to hold it, and some times holding is almost harder than the first grim struggle. And Canada's battle against inflation isn't over, not by a long shot. "But what would happen if inflation, that we've worked so hard to hold back, did capture the hill?"

Our money would lose its value. The munitions of war, high explosives, depth charges and anti-aircraft shells would cost a lot more. Precious war savings would shrink, maybe out of sight: the allowances of soldiers' wives and children, life insurance, soldiers' pensions—all would go down in value.

Canadians everywhere must continue to wage war on any up-hill trend in the cost of living whether in food, on clothing, on house furnishings or even farm machinery. The outcome of the fight against inflation depends on every Canadian—in the city, on the farm.—Edna Jacques.

Extra Cover For Ironing Board

Have you an old-fashioned ironing board that gets grimy when some member of the family stands first on one white end and then on the other in your broom closet, so that there is never a clean end for ironing the shoulders of that white blouse? Take heart, for there is a satisfactory solution right at hand. Unearth one of those old cretonne curtains you discarded because they were faded, or a four-foot section of that percale you were always sorry you bought all the sale. Cut it the shape of your ironing board, with about four inches to spare all around. Make a one-inch hem. Put in a generous drawstring, which you will probably want in exchange for $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch elastic after the war. Draw it snugly over your clean white ironing board. Afterward, it will be safe in any position in the broom closet. Merely insist that the members of your family who use the ironing board form the habit of replacing the outer cover every time before the board is closed. They will be glad to cooperate, as the nastily begrimed ends have been bothering them too, and now they have pretty nearly a guarantee the white shoulders of blouses will iron white.

THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNE ALLAN
Home Economist

Hello Homemakers! Strawberries are the star of the berry family. They are perishable though and should be treated wisely. Use strawberries as soon as possible after gathering or purchasing, and don't wash or hull them until just before using. It is wise to spread the berries on a platter and keep in the electric refrigerator.

No need to mention the delight of strawberries served 'au naturel'—whole, unhulled berries served with sugar and cream. No sugar and cream? Here are two worthy substitutes which our folks think flatters the flavour of the fruit. The first is made by beating sufficient milk into cream cheese to make a sauce just thin enough to pour; for the second, beat creamed cottage cheese flavoured with orange juice with a rotary or electric beater until smooth, adding enough top milk to make it a 'pour' sauce.

Grown-ups get as excited as children over strawberry ice cream. If it's homemade you have all the glory. We're including two good frozen desserts in the column.

Now when it comes to strawberry shortcake, don't be hide-bound by tradition! We admit that there probably is nothing better than the old-fashioned version—

warm, light-as-a-feather biscuits

split and heaped with crushed, sweetened berries—but a slice of delicious butter cake makes a pleasant change. And instead of the usual cream, serve with the whipped cream cheese.

In your enthusiasm for strawberry shortcake, don't neglect strawberry pie. Our favourite is made this way: select the choicest berries from one quart box and cover the bottom of a baked pie shell. Crush remaining berries and heat to scalding point; strain through cheesecloth; add water to make two cups liquid. Blend two-thirds cup sugar with one-quarter cup cornstarch; add liquid and cook in double boiler until thickened; add one tablespoon lemon juice, one teaspoon butter and a few drops of red colouring; cool, then pour over berries in pie shell. Serve with a little whipped cream or whipped cheese.

If you want to make a similar pie with gelatin, use the above procedure except soaking a tablespoon of gelatin in one-quarter cup cold water and dissolve it in the hot juice, omit the cornstarch and chill until syrupy, then pour over berries. Let stand for one-half hour in a cool place.

STRAWBERRY MOUSSE.
1 box strawberries, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar,
1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 cup cream.

Clean and crush berries with sugar, add lemon juice and fold in whipped cream. Pour into freezing tray and let stand in freezing compartment overnight. In the morning, whip two cups cream, add to strawberry mixture and beat well. Pour back into freezing tray, set control at coldest point and freeze until firm. Stir once at end of first hour.

STRAWBERRY MALLOW.
Crush two boxes of berries, add six tablespoons sugar and a dash of salt; heat until sugar is dissolved, add 40 cut marshmallows and stir until they are melted. Pour this mixture into electric refrigerator freezing tray and let stand in freezing compartment overnight. In the morning, whip two cups cream, add to strawberry mixture and beat well. Pour back into freezing tray, set control at coldest point and freeze until firm. Stir once at end of first hour.

Stir dry ingredients together. Cut in shortening until mixed. Beat egg slightly in measuring cup; add milk and marmalade to make a cupful and add to dry mixture. Starting from April 27th

Every citizen of Ontario must face the unpleasant fact that Canada's stockpile of grains, dairy products and vegetables . . . of which we had a great surplus four years ago . . . is almost exhausted.

For four years, Canada has been a "storehouse of food" for her Allies. She must continue to fulfil heavy obligations to them. But the surplus in the storehouse are gone. They must be replenished. Otherwise, Canadians on the Fighting Fronts . . . and at home . . .

are likely to be faced with the prospect of short food rations.

THIS YEAR the crops on Ontario Farms give promise of the heaviest yields of grain, hay, vegetables and fruit in years.

BUT THEY MUST BE HARVESTED AND SAVED . . . AND THIS IN SPITE OF THE MOST ACUTE SHORTAGE OF FARM WORKERS IN OUR HISTORY.

EVERYONE MUST HELP!

JOIN The Farm Commando Brigade, the Holiday Brigades, Business Men's Groups, Service Club Groups, Neighbourhood Groups, or one of many other organizations, that are preparing to help. For three years such organizations have supplied thousands of volunteers to Save Food for Victory. This Year Many Thousands More Volunteers Are Needed.

At the regular monthly meeting of West Lincoln Branch No. 127, Past President J. W. Gallichan was presented with his Past President's Medal. The presentation was made by Geo. "Pop" Shepherd, also a Past President of the Branch.

Comrade Shepherd spoke very highly of the work done by Comrade Gallichan during the time he has been a member of the Branch. In reply the recipient of the medal thanked the Branch for presenting him with his badge of office and declared that although he was not a resident of Grimsby now he would always work for West Lincoln Branch and would look forward to the time when he would be able to return to Grimsby to take up his residence.

During the meeting the President gave a short resume of the Annual Provincial Convention recently held in Toronto.

A rehabilitation Committee was formed in the Branch and were delegated to call on the council with a view to forming a General Committee for the whole district.

BARBERS SHUT OFF THE GAS

Last Wednesday night at The Bowiaway, Art Forester paraded his Barbers to the post for a five furlong event against Doug Hartnett's supposedly unbeatable Gas House crew. When the dust had cleared away the Barbers had trimmed the Gomers in three straight heats. At no time were the long-time league leading gas bunch really dangerous. In fact at times it did not look as if they had enough gas on hand to boil a cup of water. Barbers on the other hand were not bowling a phenomenal game but were bowling their usual steady game. Big Rahn and the other boys just could not seem to untrack themselves, while the lather slappers were making no mistakes at all. For a team that has been bowling over 3200 for three games for weeks and weeks the Gas House 2723 doesn't look so hot on paper. Art's gang grabbed a three game total of 2,897 to win by 174 points. Here is the sad, sad story in figures, which clearly show why the Barbers are the 1944 champions:

BARBERS		GAS HOUSE
Hand	167	207	Rahn	194
Powell	214	200	C. Shelton	181
Kellerborn	157	162	Buckingham	100

Forester	178	284	P. Shelton	161
Beamer	178	104	Martinet	163

NOW THE BOYS CAN SMOKE

While the Men's Bowling league was making merry at the Inn on Tuesday night the girl bowlers and the strays about town were contributing handsomely to Cammy Miliard's Cigarette Fund. All proceeds taken in at The Bowiaway during the evening with the exception of the pin boys pay were donated to the fund. During the evening 105 games were played at 13 cents a piece, which gives the Fund $12.00. Thanks everybody.

CUP AND SAUCER WINNERS

Winners in the Cup and Saucer tournament at The Bowiaway last week were Genevieve Groff, the high single score with 264 and Frances Beets the high triple with 672. Red MacBride, Mary Norton and other usually high trundlers couldn't make the grade. Who will win the beautiful chinaware this week. Get busy, girls.

THEY SURE CAN EAT A GOOD GAME

If all the teams in the Men's Bowling league could roll as good a game on The Bowiaway alleys as they can eat one around the festive board of the Village Inn, they would all be champs. The boys put the feed bags on at their annual banquet in the Inn on Tuesday night and the scores were all up-in-the-four-figures. Capt. Art Forester and his victorious Barber's team occupied the place of honor at the head table and were the recipients of many flowery tributes as well as a nice present per player from Little Whizzer Kammacher and the Gledhill and Ingelhart league trophy from Ald. Ingelhart. Hammy Foot, whose high score of 408 for the season, weathered the gale and was presented with the Hewson and Son trophy by Wm. Hewson. The viands as provided by Messrs. Anderson and Lenatt were partaken of most avidly by the boys and a good time was had by all. Charlie Norman was elected President for 1944-45 and Whizzer Kammacher will be Secretary and Chancellor of the Exchequer. The executive committee will be Gas Rahn, Ollie Shaw and Ald. John Hewitt.

BLIND BOWLERS HOLD MEETING

James A. "Jimmy" Jackson, well known Grimsby boy, has forwarded me the following report of the formation of a Blind Bowlers' league which I feel will be of interest to all five pin enthusiasts in this district.

The first Annual Meeting of the Western Ontario Blind Bowlers' League took place in the Gyro Home of the Blind, 7 Blake St., in Hamilton, on Saturday afternoon, June 3. Delegates from London, Windsor, Kitchener and St. Catharines were present. The delegate from London was Sam Lees; Windsor, A. Sparks and Victor Umbenhauer; Kitchener, G. Bews; St. Catharines, W. Terryberry, O. Damude and M. Knechtel.

The growing importance of Blind Bowling had inspired the promoters of the Hamilton Club to form what is to be known as the Western Ontario Blind Bowlers' League. The new officials of the League were elected as follows: President, Chas. Gerrie; Treasurer, James Jackson; Secretary, Mrs. Viola Smith, while the Executive Board elected Vice Tom Blair, Kenny Young, W. Stanley and Charles Tooth. Added to this group of executives will be the presidents of each bowling club, as and when they are elected by each of the local clubs.

Rules and regulations to control the Blind Bowlers were formulated, the decision of the "freezing point" determining the handicap for totally Blind Bowlers, which was formerly 80 pins. The new regulation adopted will allow all totally blind bowlers three-quarters of the pins between 215 and what they actually bowl. Formerly not more than 80 pins would be allowed as a totally blind handicap. It was unanimously agreed that the teams should consist of five men, and a "sighted" coach. The use of spare bowlers will be adopted by option of individual club. The "Westland Trophy Cup," which Hamilton Hurricanes won during the past season, was on exhibition and greatly admired, as well as coveted.

During the past four years the Hamilton Bowlers have battled for honors with the Cineco Club of Blind bowlers, in Toronto and have carried off the coveted cup in these inter-city events three times. The widening interest in Blind Bowling is resulting in many leagues now being formed in Canada, which greatly interests sighted players, whose clubs frequently meet and are often defeated by Blind Bowlers.

Dominion Day

OTTAWA, June 13 — The State Secretary's Department, reporting a number of queries from across Canada about the date upon which Dominion Day will be celebrated, said today that Canada's national holiday will be observed as always — July 1. A number of calendars for 1944 had been printed with the holiday shown on July 3 the first Monday in July. Dominion Day is one of the six wartime statutory holidays.

Waterworks Idea Before Council

Harvey Walker, of Winona, appeared before Saltfleet council last week, on behalf of a large number of ratepayers along No. 8 highway and Winona road, asking the council to consider the installation of a waterworks system to serve that area and also other parts of the township.

Mr. Walker presented estimated costs of such construction and outlined a plan which he asked the council to consider.

The council expressed themselves as being very much in favour of doing what they could to relieve the water shortage which usually occurs in the summer months in the township of Saltfleet, not only in the Winona area, but also in Stoney Creek and other portions.

The fact that the village of Stoney Creek will not sell any more water to residents outside its boundaries makes it almost necessary that some action be taken as soon as possible. A meeting will be held to meet the proposers of the scheme in the near future.

A dollar in a war bond is worth two in the hand.

Smithville Scene Of Burglaries

Acetylene welding tanks and burners valued at $150 were stolen from Ken Awrey's garage, Smithville and an office intercommunication system valued at $75 was taken from R. E. Book's lumber yard office by thieves who broke in during the early hours of Saturday morning.

The Book office was thoroughly ransacked. A quantity of builders' hardware had been stacked up.

ready for removal, but the thieves apparently took fright before getting it outside. Nothing but the welding outfit was tampered with at the Awrey garage. Provincial Constable Ernest Hart is investigating.

"Kammy" Milyard, after whom the beifer was nick named did a great job in conducting the sale of tickets on the animal and we are pleased to report that he secured the fine sum of $288 for the Cigarette Fund.

To Jack Puddicombe The Independent extends the heartiest thanks for his generosity in donating this beifer to the Fund and no doubt there is many a boy overseas will also give forth his thanks when "Kammy Kow" cigarettes arrive.

Councillor Mitchell again brought up the question of vacant land in the township being turned over for reforestation, but like on previous occasions council took no action on the matter.

The following motion was passed unanimously by council: Moved by Mitchell, seconded by Cowan: "That this council go on record as appreciating the remarkable efforts of Lieut.-Commander H. S. Rayner, D.S.C., of H.M.C.S. Huron, in the sinking and putting out of action German destroyers; also to commend all and any actions that our North Grimsby boys have accomplished and achieved in the D Day invasion. seasons many containers bore partial rubber stamp impression, due to hasty or careless stamping. Other containers bore no address, having been mislabeled by shippers when marking their consignments. These irregularities cause delays in handling and frequently result in shortages to the proper consignee."

The Regulations covering the handling of fruit traffic in leno covered packages as outlined above, are being introduced because of the necessity for correcting some of the conditions which prevailed during the 1943 season. In 1943 when fruit production was so light, shippers were unable to assemble car lots and consequently it was necessary to send daily express shipments in less than car lot quantities. For example, a wholesaler in Ottawa who in normal seasons would take a car load of fruit every two days could only be supplied by means of daily express shipments of two or three hundred packages.

In 1942 the C.N. Express Company accepted 420 carloads of fruit from the Niagara Shippers. These are cars loaded by shippers themselves and are simply picked up at the various stations by a special train operated for that purpose. In 1943 when shippers had such difficulty in assembling quantities, only 77 car lots were shipped. This was a decrease of 343 cars.

While the number of car lots decreased, the less-than-car-lot shipments increased very considerably. In 1942, 690,688 pieces were handled in this manner. In 1943, this figure jumped to 1,132,823 packages. This type of traffic has to be loaded on trains at shipping stations by loading crews supplied by the Express Company. Sufficient help was not available to handle this tremendous increase with the result that schedules could not be maintained.

Delays in operating the trains did not all occur at shipping point. At destination points, lack of equipment and man-power caused such confusion that the entire Operating Department of certain lines was completely disrupted.

Express Company Officials decided that drastic action was necessary and in February of this year announced that they would not accept leno covered packages of fruit in less than car load quantities for any destination. This move would, of course, completely disrupt the shipping programme in the Niagara Peninsula and after considering the problem with a committee of shippers, a compromise was reached. The Express Company finally agreed to continue to accept shipments for delivery only to those points as designated in their original Tariff. These are the fourteen points as listed above.

During the depression years when truck competition was a serious factor, the Express Companies did accept leno covered packages for any and all destinations although in doing so they were acting contrary to their own regulations. Their present action is simply a tightening-up of the rules which have been effective for a great many seasons. Leno covered packages are the only type affected. Fruit packed in crates, Hampers, or baskets with flat covers will still be accepted for delivery anywhere.

The new instructions regarding piling and separation of shipments on station platforms are designed to speed the loading of trains and to eliminate delays as much as possible.

Shippers will have to make some adjustments in their programmes to conform with the new regulations. Some hardships will result but it is hoped that an improvement will be effected in the handling of a very perishable commodity.

FIVE QUID HANGS
of the place, so we got arguing back and forth, and finally laid a bet on it.

Now here's what I'd like to know Bones, is there, or about I say has there been in recent years, a "Hausman's Clothing Store" or "Hausman's Gent's Furnishing Store" in town? If you'd enlighten us on that subject, I'd appreciate it very much. We both decided that you were the logical person to settle this, hence this epistle.

That's the story Bones, and five quid is a lot of dough, so how's for a fast answer? That's the bet, five lovely old quid.

Leslie J. ("Jimmy" to you, if I remember correctly) sends along the "Independent" quite regularly, so I get to know all the Grimsby gossip eventually. You certainly have made a wonderful improvement in that paper, Bones, and deserve a lot of credit. It's a paper well worth reading now. My congratulations!!

Well for now, time for me to get back to work. Hope this finds you in your usual good health and generally. Please give my best to "Dyke" and all the rest, and thanks in advance for the info requested. I know you'll send it along right smartly.

Johnny.

The chairman explained how this undertaking had grown from a small private hospital idea to the present set-up which would provide all the expensive facilities of a larger institution which is bound to follow with the introduction of Government Health policies.

It was further reported that in order to provide for this much more necessary scheme as called for in recent plans, a total of $50,000.00 would be spent on the undertaking, of which $30,000.00 in round figures has been lined up from the public.

Dr. Leeds of Smithville spoke at some length on the needs of pushing this project through at the earliest possible moment and showed how this undertaking fits into the general Government plan, and suggested that the Provincial Government be approached to provide $10,000.00, the public to furnish the balance of $10,000.00, making a total of $40,000.00 (including County grant) from the public, which the Chairman thought the public would be able to handle, and the plan was approved. It was further remarked that the hospital being the owner of a $25,000.00 property plus $30,000.00 cash this $75,000.00 undertaking was now 75% up the ladder.
